GUIDELINES FOR THE REQUEST FOR PROPOSAL

I. DESCRIPTION OF THE ORGANIZATION

The Navajo Nation is the largest federally recognized Indian Tribe, occupies a land base of approximately 27,000 square miles, and extends into three states: Arizona, New Mexico, and Utah. On August 22, 1996, Public Law (P.L.) 104-193, "The Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act (PRWORA) of 1996," was signed into law. This law ended the Administration to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC) Programs. Under P.L. 104-193, the new law created block grants to States, and authorized Indian Tribes to apply for and administer their own Temporary Assistance to Needy Families (TANF) Program.

II. SCOPE OF CONTRACT

XIII. AGREEMENT TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The services requested will be provided under the Terms and Conditions set forth in the Navajo Nation's Standard Agreement. A copy of the Standard Agreement can be made available upon request. The Agreement contains the Standard Provisions and Special Provisions applicable to the services anticipated in this RFP. If the organization cannot agree to the terms and conditions set forth in the Agreement, the respondent must indicate the specific section(s) of the Agreement that is not acceptable and should submit alternative language explaining their change to that section. The Navajo Nation will consider the alternate language proposed by the respondent, and the Navajo Nation will not be bound by the alternate language change received from the respondent. If the organization stipulates that the Navajo Nation be bound to the change of the language in the Agreement, the Agreement may not be considered or may be rejected.

The DSR will make a reasonable effort to execute an agreement by selecting the proposal that best meets the needs and requirements of the DSR. The Agreement shall be signed by the contractor and returned to DSR within five (5) working days from the receipt of the Agreement. The Agreement will not become effective until signed by a person holding the required authority for both parties.

Failure to execute the Agreement within the period identified above will be sufficient cause for voiding the award of the Agreement. If the successful bidder refuses or fails to accept the Agreement, the DSR may award the contract to the next qualifying organization that responded to the bid.
